8 Reasonable Adjustments

- 8.1 The School has an ongoing duty to make reasonable adjustments for pupils with a disability to ensure they do not suffer a substantial disadvantage in comparison to non-disabled pupils. The School will inform and consult with parents about what reasonable adjustments, if any, the School are able to make for their disabled child. The School will carefully consider any proposals for auxiliary aids and services in light of a pupil's disability and, for example, the resources available to the School. The School has a duty to make reasonable adjustments (case by case considerations) for staff or pupils who request to be known as gender neutral, gender fluid, are undergoing gender reassignment or are transgender.
- 8.2 The School is not legally required to make alterations to the School's physical environment as part of the reasonable adjustments duty. However, the School monitors and reviews the physical environment to consider what reasonable and proportionate steps can be taken to alleviate any substantial disadvantage caused to disabled pupils. The School has an Accessibility Plan in place, a copy of which can be made available upon request.
- 8.3 The School, acknowledges pupil voice and opinion and recognises that some pupils will not feel comfortable actively participating in certain religious events throughout the year. Pupils are expected to participate in the Nativity (Nursery and KS1) and attend Harvest Festival and Christmas Carol Service (KS1 and KS2). However, the school respects that some parents may prefer their child not to have a prominent role in the nativity and some pupils will prefer not to sing in the Choir or deliver a reading or prayer at the Carol Service. During whole school songs it is accepted that some children may prefer not to sing specifically about Jesus or the Lord our God.

The school recognises that some children may prefer not to participate in religious celebrations such as Holi or actively recreate acts of worship when visiting Religious sites such as the Balaji Hindu temple in Birmingham. During such visits, pupils will be given the opportunity to participate. Their decision will always be respected.

- 8.4 The school has a Jewellery Policy for pupils that states that jewellery, other than small studded earrings, should not be worn in school. However, some pupils may have bracelets or necklaces which they wear for Religious reasons. These should reasonably be expected to be removed by pupils for Health and Safety reasons when they participate in sport.
